INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CATHOLIC

“RCIA” stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and it’s how we describe the way we accompany people who want to explore baptism in the Catholic Church (or coming in to full Communion with the Church if they are already a baptised Christian). Sessions will be starting soon and are completely without any commitment other than the desire to find out more about the Catholic faith. If you are interested, please speak to one of the priests. If someone you know has been thinking about it, please encourage them to do the same. In addition, on Wednesday 5 September at 7pm, there will be an information evening in the church house. Members of the parish RCIA team will be there to answer questions and explain the process. If you are considering becoming a Catholic please consider coming along for a cup of tea. There is absolutely no commitment only information and support.

A note of thanks from Sr Pauline.

I would like to thank you all for for your welcome, kind words, support (financial and otherwise) and encouragement when back on holiday from my Barbados Mission. Unfortunately, I did not make a weekend mass, but managed to a few weekday masses in Holy Cross when I was over. I even managed a Friday tearoom! Please continue to keep the mission and myself in your prayers. The working day is very long (7.30 am till 6pm minimum!) and can be stressful at times, but is rewarding and challenging too. The weather is also a bonus-most of the time!

Tuesday 4 September STV @ 7.30 pm there is a programme about the annual Barbados Celtic Festival which features the pupils of St Patrick’s school, St Patrick’s Cathedral and myself. I am flying back on the 3rd so won’t actually see it! If you watch it, and want to send a message to the St Patrick’s children, email me at paulinetwin44@gmail.com. They’d love to get comments. Sr Margaret Mary sends her greetings too. She hopes to get back to Glasgow for a visit at some stage.
