On Sunday (29 October) Pope Francis reflected on Jesus' command to love God above all things, and your neighbour as yourself, saying that it is in the Eucharist that we receive the grace to carry this out.

“God, who is Love, has created us to make us part of his life, to be loved and to love Him, and to love all other people with Him. This is God's 'dream' for man. And in order to accomplish it we need his grace, we need to receive in us the ability to love that comes from God himself.”

For this reason “Jesus offers himself to us in the Eucharist...” the Pope said Oct. 29. “In it we receive his Body and His Blood, that is, we receive Jesus in the best expression of his love, when He has offered himself to the Father for our salvation.”

RED WEDNESDAY 22 Nov

Red is the Catholic colour of martyrdom. Catholics are the most persecuted faith group in today's world and Red Wednesday will honour all Catholics who suffer and die for their faithfulness to Christ's message of peace and love.
