Thanks to everyone who organised last week's BBQ and Fun Day. It went really well. What's next?

Brunch. This weekend's Sunday's Brunch in Holy Cross after the 10am Mass is to try to get a bit more social interaction between parishioners. We can often end up just coming to Mass and perhaps not even know the names of some of our fellow parishioners. Jesus formed a community of believers because he knew that human beings need a social dimension to our lives. Our family and friends provide that most of the time, but a parish community invites us to widen that group to include those whom we worship with. When Jesus gives us His Body, we become the Body of Christ, his presence in the world.

To be truly faithful to Jesus' ministry we have to work at building a community where everyone knows they are welcome, and knows they will be missed if they aren't with us. It takes time and effort to build such a community, so please don't see this event as being for someone else, they are for you, because without you, our community is diminished.
